

Temporary Boarding Resources for Pets

These organizations work with people experiencing domestic abuse, sexual assault, and human trafficking. Clients are responsible for inquiries and applications. Mission holds no influence over admission or funding decisions made by these organizations.

Resource	Description	Contact Information
Day One (MNAFAS)	Service that provides temporary pet foster care for survivors of domestic violence, sexual assault, and/or human trafficking.	Ph: 952-646-6563 Web: http://www.dayoneservices.org/pet-protection/
Missions Inc. Programs' Home Free Shelter	An emergency domestic abuse shelter for women and children. They work with a foster pet program that helps find people to care for pets of the emergency shelter clients while they stay there.	Ph: 763-559-4945 Web: https://www.missionsinc.org/our-services/domestic-violence-services/#home-free-shelter
Women of Nations (Native American culturally-focused organization, but all are welcome)	An emergency shelter for women and children who have experienced trauma from domestic violence, sexual assault, and dating violence. Pets are welcome to stay on-site with their owners.	Ph: 651-251-1609 Web: https://women-of-nations.org/about-us/programs/
Red Rover	A grant program that helps survivors afford emergency boarding costs for their pet.	Ph: 916-429-2457 Web: https://redrover.org/relief/ *Click either 'Domestic Violence Escape Grants' or 'Domestic Violence Safe Housing Grants'
Casa de Esperanza	A program that offers help to any Spanish speakers. They do not have their own shelter at this time, but they can refer you to any others around MN.	Ph: 651-772-1611 Web: https://casadeesperanza.org/